ROUGHRIDERS FAN CLUB
CODE OF CONDUCT

Thank you for agreeing to dedicate your time and efforts for the benefit of the Cedar Rapids RoughRiders Fan Club. The task of a volunteer can sometimes be demanding, but the rewards of making a contribution to the support of the RoughRider players is well worth the effort.

We are a non-profit organization under Iowa State Law. Donations to the Fan Club are recognized as tax deductible by the IRS under section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code. We must make various annual state and IRS filings to maintain these privileges.

Our mission statement is to support the team and the RoughRiders Organization. Distinct responsibilities come with being a volunteer of a non-profit organization. You have accepted an obligation to act in the best interests of the Organization as a whole. All members are expected to adhere to the policies, goals and principles of the Organization and to set an example of civic volunteerism. You must keep the following principles in mind:

- ⤴ Organizational goals before personal goals. Put the best interest of the program and players ahead of individual desires. WE ARE HERE TO SUPPORT THE TEAM.
- ⤴ No member will engage in any activity that is illegal or fraudulent.
- ⤴ No member will violate the privacy of any player, coach, staff or other Fan Club Member.
- ⤴ No member will harass or engage in questionable behavior with/toward any player.
- ⤴ Treat all players, coaches, staff and fans with respect.
- ⤴ Be respectful at all meetings.

Any breach of these policies should be immediately brought to the attention of the Fan Club President for disposition. Any member found violating the above policies can have their membership terminated by the Fan Club Board. This includes behavior from the previous season, if warranted, prior to accepting membership for the current season.

In order for the Fan Club to be successful, it requires its members to be active. Please participate, bearing in mind that although not affiliated with the RoughRiders Organization, we carry the name and can never bring discredit to either the Organization or the Fan Club.
